

Callum McKinven (Canada)

Breed: Holstein, Open Show - Tuesday 24 February

Callum McKinven will judge Holstein cattle at the SIMAGENA Open Show, based on his experience as a judge at internationally renowned open shows in 25 countries, including the World Dairy Expo in Madison (USA) and the Expo Internationale Holstein Québec in Canada.

Callum McKinven and his wife Kathy Beerwort have run the LOOKOUT Holstein and Jersey farm with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry and Connie Halbach since 2002. The LOOKOUT herd has 120 head of cattle, including 35 lactating cows. This herd has a distinguished reputation in Canada. It has 14 Excellent, 18 Very Good and 3 Good Plus classified cows. The average production level of this herd is around 10,000 kilos of milk. The LOOKOUT Holstein & Jersey farm will have the privilege of hosting the annual picnic of the Holstein Québec association in 2010. This major event is attended by all livestock farmers who are members of the Holstein Québec association.

Among the animals on which the LOOKOUT herd's reputation is built is Elmbrige FM Loveable Red, TB 88 3 years, which performed extremely well in North America this autumn.
